

9/10

children prefer MiSight® 1 day
contact lenses to glasses^{1,2*†}

Did you know that children as young as 8 can wear MiSight® 1 day contact lenses to slow the progression of their myopia (short-sightedness) and 9/10 prefer them to wearing glasses?^{1,2*†} To trial MiSight® 1 day, ask your optometrist.

Supported by

BRILLIANT FUTURES™
MYOPIA MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

*95%–100% of children expressed a preference for contact lenses over glasses at each visit over 36 months. †How much do you like wearing your contact lenses? 87/97 (90%) Top box 'I like contact lenses the best' Subjective response at 60 months. References: 1. Sulley A et al. Wearer experience and subjective responses with dual focus compared to spherical, single vision soft contact lenses in children during a 3-year clinical trial. AAO 2019 Poster Presentation. 2. CooperVision® data on file, 2019. MiSight® 1 day soft contact lenses for vision correction and control of the progression of myopia. This product may not be right for you, refer to your optometrist for advice. Read the instructions for use before purchase (<https://coopervision.net.au/patient-instruction>) and follow the instructions for use. MiSight®, Brilliant Futures™ and CooperVision® are registered trademarks of the Cooper Companies, Inc. and its subsidiaries. EMVCO0782 ©2021 CooperVision.